The WCA Conference is a unique opportunity to engage with other casewriters in a small group format to exchange feedback and polish a case, learn about using cases in the classroom, incorporate a peer-reviewed conference and proceedings on a vita, and learn from leading case researchers and case educators.

The WCA Conference is an excellent professional opportunity because as a "developmental" meeting it is designed to provide positive and valuable feedback from experienced case researchers. Submissions are double-blind peer reviewed by at least two reviewers, with the objective to help participants move toward journal publication. A proceeding is published that includes a synopsis of each case. Awards are given for the "Best Case", "Best Mentored Case" (i.e., student author(s) and the faculty supervisor), and "Best Reviewer".

Primarily a roundtable discussion format, conference participants will be grouped with three to four other case researchers and an experienced facilitator. Participants will provide detailed feedback on each other's cases. The feedback, although rigorous, is very friendly and meant to suggest avenues for improving and modifying case submissions. Submitted cases should have a clear learning objective for students and be framed around problems facing decision makers in an organization. Cases may be based on field research or secondary sources, but must be entirely factual. Cases from all disciplines, and researchers of all experience levels, including graduate students, are welcome.

SUBMISSIONS: We have two submission dates (see above) to accommodate those seeking early notification of acceptance. Submit by emailing Program Chair Franziska Renz at franziska.renz@csus.edu. Submitting a case implies agreement to review for the WCA conference.

Submissions should be sent as two (2) MS Word documents (see submission guidelines on the WCA website).

1. A basic case synopsis with the authors' names and contact information.
2. A single document containing both the case and the instructor's manual, but no way to identify the author(s) for the double-blind peer-review.

CALL FOR REVIEWERS: Want to know what our reviewers look for in a case? Sign up to review for the conference by contacting Franziska Renz at franziska.renz@csus.edu.

If you have a case ready to submit, please consider the Journal of Case Research and Inquiry Of the Western Casewriters Association.

The JCRI is listed in Cabell's International Journalytics.

(Submit any time)

The Western Casewriters Association's Journal of Case Research and Inquiry (JCRI) is currently accepting case studies for peer review and possible inclusion in the JCRI's next online edition.

The JCRI publishes peer reviewed (1) TEACHING CASE STUDIES in business and public administration, nonprofit management, social entrepreneurship, and public policy; (2) NOTES - industry or theoretical analyses to accompany cases; and (3) ARTICLES on case research and teaching with cases.

Please review the JCRI submission guidelines at https://jcri.netlify.app/. Do not hesitate to contact the editorial team at editor@jcri.org with any additional questions.

Thank you for your consideration and the JCRI editors look forward to receiving your case study submission(s).
